

All Notes on the Guitar Fretboard

fret: 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12

string
1
2
3
4
5
6

This diagram shows the natural harmonic series on a guitar fretboard. It consists of six staves representing strings 1 through 6. Above the staves are fret numbers from 0 to 12. The notes are represented by black dots on the staves, with sharp symbols (#) indicating the specific pitch of each note. Below frets 3, 5, 7, and 9, there is a single dot. Below fret 12, there are two dots. The notes are: fret 0 (open strings), fret 1 (string 1), fret 2 (string 2), fret 3 (string 3), fret 4 (string 4), fret 5 (string 5), fret 6 (string 1), fret 7 (string 2), fret 8 (string 3), fret 9 (string 4), fret 10 (string 5), fret 11 (string 1), and fret 12 (string 2).

fret: 0 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12

string
1
2
3
4
5
6

This diagram shows the flat harmonic series on a guitar fretboard. It consists of six staves representing strings 1 through 6. Above the staves are fret numbers from 0 to 12. The notes are represented by black dots on the staves, with flat symbols (b) indicating the specific pitch of each note. Below frets 3, 5, 7, and 9, there is a single dot. Below fret 12, there are two dots. The notes are: fret 0 (open strings), fret 1 (string 1), fret 2 (string 2), fret 3 (string 3), fret 4 (string 4), fret 5 (string 5), fret 6 (string 1), fret 7 (string 2), fret 8 (string 3), fret 9 (string 4), fret 10 (string 5), fret 11 (string 1), and fret 12 (string 2).